Tatts Lotteries Chief Executive Mr Bill Thorburn said this decision was taken to ensure that delegates don't miss the opportunity to participate in WLA 2010 Convention and Trade Show – the industry's biennial Convention.

"WLA 2010 offers a rare opportunity to connect with industry representatives from around the world in one city, and under one roof," he said.

"We are expecting more than 800 delegates from all over the world to come and join us in Brisbane, Australia for a week of networking, learning and sharing.

"We don't want anyone to miss out on this biennial event and highly recommend to those who haven't yet booked to do so quickly as hotels in Brisbane are selling fast due to other major events across the city."

The week will comprise of presentations by leading experts in corporate social responsibility, responsible gambling, technology, strategic intelligence, the privatisation of lottery businesses and product innovation, along with a comprehensive trade show exhibiting the latest developments in lottery technology and a unique social program.

"We have some great activities lined up for delegates and partners who may be accompanying them, to get to know each other better, along with experiencing the best of Brisbane," Mr Thorburn said.

"With a feast eaten 'under the sea', cuddly Koalas to be patted, the world's largest sand dune to be conquered and participation in the race that literally stops the nation, WLA 2010 Convention and Trade Show is a must to come and participate in," he said.
